Mr. Creverling Now Wants Deeds Exe-cuted Eleven Years Ago Declared Void-

A bill was filed in the Court of Chancery 5 at Trenton yesterday in which Adam M. 2 Oreverling, a wealthy storekeeper of Wash-Warren County, asks that deeds executed by him eleven years ago be set deeds were those supposed to be still in the lawyer's safe. The father says he does not know why his son took the deeds, but absolves the young man of any moral delinquency. He, however, says that in taking them his son committed a legal fraud.

BEARS ARE PUNISHED.

Stocks Rise Briskly on Covering by Operators for Lower

Prices.

Prices.

Wall Street, Aug. 25.

The market after relapsing into duiness early in the day became active at advancing prices in the afternoon.

It had become evident that the attacks

It had become evident that the attacks WAITED FOR THE WORD GO dpcing results. They were nneasy from the opening on account of higher London cables and foreign buying orders.

Before afternoon the market showed that Lleutenant Usher Had Begged for Ilquidation had been completed. In the last hour a covering movement started, which caused a substantial advance throughout the list. Stocks like Sugar, Manhattan and N. People's Gas, which had been subject to bear manipulation, profited the most.

A remarkable plan that failed through no fault of his was that of Lieutenant Usher, commanding the little torpedo boat Eslosson. Had not war's chances been against him his name would now probably he on the nation's tongue.

Usher intended to run into Santiago Harbor by night, torpedo those of the Spanish ships he could reach and ignore his chance of ever getting out of it alive.

He didn't do it, but the story of his plan is interesting as showing how real heroism is not all closely monopolized by the fa-
